NIXON'S PEACE RUSE

"I have offered the enemy my hand again and again. It was the very essence of my program to come to an understanding with them. We have never demanded anything from them and we have never insisted on anything. I repeatedly offered my hand, but always in vain. Even after this war had begun there were possibilities for an agreement. After each battle I offered my hand, after the first one, and after the second, I offered my hand. I demanded nothing. Still all was in vain. Still again I offered my hand. They literally spat on me. We have been drawn into a war against our will."

--Adolph Hitler on the eve of his offensive against

Stalingrad, 1942

Last week with much advanced fanfare, Nixon took to the boob tube to tell the world his "new peace plan" for Southeast Asia. It turned out to be the cunning political move one expected with elections and anti-war demonstrations scheduled for the next month. For Nixon to appeal for "peace in this generation" while as Commander-in-Chief he is responsible for the dropping of bombs equalling two and one half Hiroshimas a week on Vietnam, is just so much more public relations rhetoric. People of the movement may instinctively sense that all the peace rhetoric is only a facade for American Imperialism but many people do not. That makes it necessary to analyze the "plan" and to actively combat the lies and false assumptions within it.

First, Nixon calls for an immediate cease-fire in Southeast Asia. On first glance this seems like a far-reaching drastic step, but it's not. The Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam has in its recent eight-point peace proposal (which incidentally was hardly even mentioned in the American press) called for a cease-fire to allow American troops to withdraw from Vietnam. But the rejection of this proposal by the US has made it clear that the issue is not the cease fire, but whether or not the US is going to withdraw its troops from Vietnam. The actions and statements of the Nixon administration make it clear that the US is not going to get out of Vietnam voluntarily, but is trying to maintain American control in that area of the world. Remember, it was Secretary of Defense Laird who said that it would be necessary to keep 250,000 troops in Vietnam for at least 10 years to complete "Vietnamization." Vietnamization itself is only the Nixon process of pacifying the American public by reducing American casualties through the replacement of infantry with stepped-up saturation terror bombing, resulting in increased death and destruction.

Second, Nixon calls for an international convention to settle the issues of Indo-China. While the idea of an international convention may win acclaim around the world, the peoples of Indo-China have seen these conventions before. They remember the Geneva Convention of 1954 which the US, with Nixon as Vice-President, did not sign and in fact immediately violated as the US again did with the Geneva Agreements of 1962. The peoples of Indo-China are not interested in another settlement imposed from outside and guaranteed by the same people and nations that violated the last agreements. They want to determine their own destiny.

Third, Nixon proposes to negotiate a timetable for American troop withdrawal. This is absurd from the point of view of the Vietnamese. It was the US who trampled on the Geneva Accords of 1954 and substituted themselves for the French colonialists. It was the US who by setting up and supporting the puppet governments of Bao Dai, Diem, and Thieu and by increasing American military involvement to protect those puppets has caused the war to be dragged out and Vietnam to be ravaged. The Vietnamese do not want the US to map out or threaten their destiny. The Vietnamese do want the US out of Vietnam so that they may settle their own affairs.

Fourth, Nixon wants to reach a "political settlement that truly meets the aspirations of all the South Vietnamese." This is more political jive. Nixon, as had his three predecessors, consistently attempted to smash the legitimate political aspirations of the Vietnamese in order to bring and keep Vietnam into the American Empire. Even with this proposal, Nixon insists that the puppet government of Thieu, Ky, and Khiem be included in any political settlement. Thieu, Ky, and Khiem are considered to be traitors by most of the Vietnamese people, and would have to leave along with their American masters.

The final point by Nixon is a call to release all the prisoners. While the prisoner release plan has wide-spread support in this country, the question of the US pilots being held by North Vietnam is misunderstood. From all indications, the pilots are being treated humanely and the North Vietnamese have pledged to release them as soon as the US withdraws its troops from Vietnam and ceases making war on the Vietnamese people. From the North Vietnamese point of view, the pilots are war criminals who have come over 8,000 miles to wreak death and destruction on their land in the name of American aggression. Remember, that pilots are not draftees but are officers who volunteered to serve in the American war machine. The North Vietnamese feeling is summed up by the North Vietnamese official in Paris who, when asked by a wife of a captured pilot as to what to tell her children about their father, answered, "Tell them their father killed Vietnamese children".

The Nixon proposal is not aimed at gaining any real peace in Vietnam but on the contrary is geared to legitimize the American intervention and pacify the anti-war, anti-imperialist movement here at home. It neglects the fundamental issue of self-determination that the Vietnamese people have been struggling about for 25 years.

Madame Binh of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam and Xuan Thuy of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam have both rejected Nixon's proposals for just that reason. They insist that the stumbling block to any Vietnam settlement is the US insistence on staying in Vietnam in support of the Thieu-Ky-Khiem regime. In the eight point peace proposal put forth by Madame Binh in Paris, all issues raised by the Americans can be resolved once the US commits itself to a total withdrawal from Vietnam and produces a time table. Then there would be a cease-fire, a release of prisoners and the formation of a temporary provisional government consisting of the PRG and elements of the Saigon government.

This is the basis for a true peace in Vietnam and must be brought to the American people and forced upon the American government. Establishment "doves" are not going to do it as evidenced by their rallying behind Nixon. It must be done by us.

The Vietnamese are winning. Their victory is an example to all oppressed people and is the beginning of the end for the American Empire. But the price in death and destruction to Vietnam has been incredible, and it would compound the tragedy to prolong the horrors of this conflict when a settlement is so easily possible.

HERE'S SUING

“U”

Last Friday afternoon the Good Guys lost a round in their attempt to apply law and order to football games. Circuit Judge Campbell in Ann Arbor ruled that there wasn't enough evidence that the U of M-MSU game would cause "irreparable injury" to the community and allowed it to be played.

But this is just the opening round in a suit which will almost surely reach the Michigan Supreme Court, and which asks that the Michigan Stadium be permanently closed because it is a "public, common and continuous nuisance."

The suit was filed on October 8 in partial response to the closing of Goose Lake Park after the Goose Lake rock festival. In fact, the suit was simply a rewriting of the action that the Jackson County Prosecutor filed to shut down Goose Lake.

The legal action was taken by Joel Block, a former sports editor of the Michigan Daily and is now a janitor for the U of M, as well as a union organizer for the university's branch of the AFSCME. Block said that he was taking the action not only because the Stadium was a big nuisance, but also to ensure "equal law enforcement."

The suit has freaked out the Michigan power structure because Governor Milliken has tried to make political hay out of "drug use" at rock festivals, has said that if there can't be rock festivals without drugs there won't be rock festivals at all, and has proposed to local communities a model ordinance to forbid "outdoor gatherings" of more than 5,000 without permission from the city nearby and requiring certain numbers of toilets, performance bonds, and other harassment..

Block says, among other things, that since you can't put on a football game without illegal alcohol use by Middle Americans, you can't have football games!

There has been a partial press blackout in the state on the story because of the possibility of serious disruption of the collegiate football industry. The suit is also a threat to the corporate empire of the University of Michigan because football is used as a means of keeping students passive, the alumni happy, and providing interesting slush funds.

Obscenity, Drunks, Etc.

A team of guerrilla investigators attended the October 3 U of M-Texas A & M game and gathered damning evidence of the depravity of football, despite the pathetic efforts of the U of M administration to clean the place up better than usual in anticipation of those investigators. Included in the suit's supporting affidavits are these reports:

--"I walked down the steps to where the aisle stopped and sat in the first row of benches, before the steps began. This row was about 20 rows up from the bottom. A man stood up 7 to 10 rows ahead of me and said in a loud voice 'Did you people hide the steps?' He then proceeded to climb up the benches towards me, roughly pushing aside people who were sitting on the benches in his way. As he passed me and reached the steps I smelled a heavy odor of alcohol on his breath."

--"A young woman in front of me yelled 'Knock the shit out of them.' The young man next to her yelled 'Kill, murder 'em.' Both continued to yell throughout the game the following phrases in voices loud enough for the two Boy Scout ushers nearby to hear: 'You son of a bitch.'

hear: 'You son of a bitch, Darden;' 'Kill;' 'Oh shit;' 'Now kill 'em, kick 'em in the side;' 'Don't let 'em get up, kill 'em;' 'Oh, shit, you assholes.'"

--"I smelled the odor of marijuana and turned around to see a 'joint' or 'reefer' being passed between three young males two rows behind me. More tissue paper rolls were thrown on the field."

--"There was extensive consumption of beer, wine, and whiskey. I saw persons, both adult and minor, consuming these beverages, and a very large number of empty bottles were visible after the game."

--"The noise was extremely loud, disturbing people who lived nearby and were not participants in the football game, but merely had the bad fortune to live near the stadium."

--"The overcrowded traffic conditions aggravated an emergency. I saw an ambulance leaving the stadium with flashing lights, and it was unable to make progress because of the traffic jam."

--"There were many persons who were in attendance and who displayed flags and banners symbolizing revolution, rebellion and revolt against the government of the United States; to wit, flags and banners of the former Confederate States of America."

--"While attending the Michigan football game on October 3, 1970, I engaged in conversation with two maintenance employees. They said that they would have to take two truckloads of alcoholic beverage containers (bottles and beer cans) out of the stadium, and did not say that this was an unusually high amount."

--"I noticed extensive consumption of alcohol in public inside the stadium, and approached four Ann Arbor policemen. I inquired why they were not enforcing the law against such drinking. Three of them replied that they were not enforcing the law because it was 'private property.' The fourth one said he thought the law was being enforced, but he didn't seem to do anything about it."

What Next for Law and Order?

At last Friday's hearing the University of Michigan's attorney knew all he had to do was to show up and the request for a preliminary injunction against the game would be denied. After all, the U of M is the most powerful business in Washtenaw County, and businesses in general can get what they want from courts. (The name of the game is called "ruling class.") The judge simply ignored the vast amount of evidence presented and said there "wasn't enough." So there were teams of investigators at the U of M-MSU game.

Also, Ann Arbor pig chief Krasny, in league with the University, stated that the police department really did make attempts to enforce the law inside the stadium. However, that doesn't matter. Just the traffic congestion alone would make the thing a "public nuisance."

The packed courtroom was treated to an object lesson in how the law works: it protects vested interests, no matter how generally the law is assumed to apply. The U of M can cause fantastic trouble every other fall Saturday to thousands of Ann Arbor residents, while Goose Lake is shut down.

The same day of the hearing, Richard Songer, the promoter of Goose Lake, was arrested on two counts of being an "accessory to drug use" and two counts of being "in control of drugs" at the rock festival last August. He said he would beat the charges, as they are obviously political. And he is right. He also commented that if the police are arresting him they should also be arresting the presidents of Michigan State and the University of Michigan.

So the legal fallout over Goose Lake continues. Soon the Michigan judicial system will have to decide that either we have both festivals or football games or we have neither. It should be interesting to watch the judges squirm.

Law and order strikes again!

JAILBREAK

By N.P.

Lots of us go through a period of confusion, when we are changing so rapidly that we develop an identity crisis. It took me a while to put the stages of my life in some kind of order so that I could make sense out of why my head is where it is now.

For many brothers and sisters a term in prison causes their revolutionary consciousness; for me, it was a term of living in King Hall. At first, like too many other women living in dorms now, I didn't realize the extent of my oppression. I accepted the dorm rules, regulations, hours, and atmosphere as something I was supposed to do. Every chance I got, I split to Ann Arbor for lack of anything to do in Ypsilanti.

Later on I began to understand why EMU was different from U of M: The students here are mainly children of working-class parents. Therefore, many of us were not able to receive the "good" educational backgrounds that children from higher income brackets were. No matter what the reason, financial or academic, we are all here because we "couldn't get into a better school."

Suddenly it was all so obvious to me how Amerika uses its institutions to divide people into classes and categories and divide us from each other. It became so clear how it uses me for its own capitalistic gain and nothing else.

Suddenly I understood why I was so unhappy and my unhappiness' relation to the unhappiness of all oppressed, imprisoned people everywhere. I saw for the first time what it meant to be a woman. I could no longer accept anything in connection with the dorm. I went to Ann Arbor every chance I could, just to escape the dreary sterile walls that seemed to be closing in on me more and more. Sometimes, just to avoid having to come back earlier than I wanted to my depressing domain, I was forced into sleeping places that I really didn't want to.

The dorm rules force us to do that! We can sign out overnight any time, but are punished if we come back past 11 o'clock. They say it's for our protection, yet they set us up as sexual targets for every man on this campus. They remind us that girls have gotten raped, but they can't conceive of this happening before eleven. They say we cannot defend ourselves from the simple realities of life. They rob us of all our dignity and humiliate us into believing that we are helpless. We continue to feel inferior to men.

I felt sadness every time I heard my brothers yelling outside my window. I wanted to run outside and be with them. Later on, my sadness changed into repulsion and I just wanted to burn down the building.

Karen, Judy, Sue, Barb and I, the only freaks in the dorm, would get really high in our room (that seemed to be the only nice thing there was to do in King Hall) and then go down to dinner. Not only were we divided from our brothers, but we were divided from our sisters, which is even more frightening. Each clique sat at its own table ignoring everyone else. The five of us always sat together, entranced by the games we watched being played. We played our own game, called "Keep Your Sanity."

The last time I had to be subjected to the degradation of hurrying my friends out the door by the time the Girl On Duty announced "two minutes till closing" was a month before finals. Sue and I won the game, regained our sanity, and quit school.

It's too bad I had to resort to that just to get out of the dorm.

We are sisters! We have been conditioned by a society that does not want us to be together, so we grow up believing we can't be. Pig Nation does not want us to be sisters, it wants to lock us up from the world around us so that we will not know the truth--that it is controlled by racist, white male supremacists. We are just another threat to their weakening power. They want to separate us by defining the roles of men and women so that we fear each other instead of loving each other as brothers and sisters.

Unite and Struggle

This year it is possible for the women in dorms to unite and fight against their common enemy, the oppression this administration forces upon them.

There are more of you this year who are aware of our struggle, and you have the strength that we didn't. But now we can all work together, with the help of our brothers, to fight against our common enemy. You are a political prisoner as long as you live in a dorm governed by hours.

We have started actions on several fronts against hours. One of them is to use the University's student judicial system against the Administration--to turn the Administration's instruments of oppression against it. This weekend eight sisters (who don't want their names published for fear of reprisal) have filed suit in Student Court asking that the Court declare hours null and void for five separate reasons.

Why the Suit Says Hours Are Illegal

First, the sisters say that the University doesn't have authority to enact an hours system because they serve no educational purpose, and because they "invidiously, maliciously, and without any cause whatever discriminate against women as a class." The sisters quote Michigan and Federal law cases to back this claim up.

Second, they say that as it is applied in practice the hours system hampers women from getting an education because the Library closes at midnight, and because "being imprisoned in a dormitory against her will does not tend to make a woman feel friendly to the University or its course of study."

Third, the eight plaintiffs state that the hours rules are "defective because the purported justifications for the system do not actually justify it and in fact negate it, and that therefore the rules do not flow from the purposes stated for them. This violates Plaintiffs' right to substantive due process of law." The suit quotes the garbage from the "Code for Coeds" about how the University operates "under the assumption that a college student is mature and capable of determining her own course of action without unnecessary rules which hinder personal self-discipline." So how can that justify hours?

Fourth, the women state that "the women's hours system as applied is administered by people totally untrained in the most elementary principles of law, fairness, and equity, and that the system by its total lack of safeguards and its total lack of effective training for those who administer it invites abuse and use for personal and vindictive purposes," and therefore violates their right to procedural due process of law.

Fifth, they say that "imprisonment without cause merely because of their condition (being of one sex rather than another) violates their constitutional right to be free of cruel and unusual punishment."

Why Hours Hurt and What Can Be Done

The girls say that they are damaged by the hours rules because: '(a) They are unable to conduct a normal life, but instead must rule that life by the clock; (b) Their education is harmed, as they are deprived of the intellectual and social company of others after certain arbitrarily fixed hours; (c) They are systematically degraded and humiliated by the women's hours system and by the personnel who administer that system; (d) They suffer great loss of dignity and perceive themselves as inferior because of their 'need for protection'; (e) They learn to hate EMU and all it stands for; (f) They are taught that they must sign away their constitutional right to be free of arbitrary treatment and the other rights cited in this Complaint in order to pursue and education."

So what is Student Court asked to do? To issue an order striking down the entire system, expunging from all records convictions and ordering an apology to students, ordering the cessation of pending prosecutions, forbidding the University to harass them for bringing the suit, and forbidding administrators to enter students' rooms to enforce the hours code.

Can Student Court Do It?

So are the sisters serious? Yes. They say that Student Court has the power to strike down defective rules because that power is needed in the very nature of the judicial function. They say: "Before a tribunal can punish a person, it has to be sure that the law or regulation is valid. A university regulation cannot be valid if it conflicts with a Michigan statute, the Michigan Constitution, a Federal statute, or the Federal Constitution, or cases decided under them, since obviously EMU is a state agency and cannot break the laws of the land. Not to be able to strike down defective regulations would result in an absurdity: students would be bound by regulations which do not legally exist, which would mean that the laws of the land do not extend into EMU, and that the power of the [Administration] would be without restraint." They then quote from Marbury v. Madison, the 1803 Supreme Court case establishing the power of all courts to strike down unconstitutional laws, to support their argument.

The 11-page complaint is being served as you read this on the Board of Regents, O. W. Harold, Vice-President Campbell, Dean of Students MacLean, and all the Head Advisers and Resident Assistants. Some of them have freaked out already.

There should be a hearing within the next two weeks before Student Court at which time the women will have a chance to support their claims and the Administration will get a chance to defend itself.

If any women wish to testify about what the hours system has done to them and their lives, please call Nanci at 482-5942.

Law and order marches on!

NEW NATION SISTERS

Our first meeting of the New Nation Sisters was held two weeks ago. It was a good chance to get down with each other about our common problems. At the second meeting we decided to take advantage of getting organizational status from the University. From this we decided just what our purpose was as a group in relation to the entire community. We agreed on three major points:

1. To educate women about their pre-defined roles in society and the social orientation.
2. To educate men as to their inherent dominating roles.
3. To offer alternatives to social identity, aiming toward liberation of women and men.

We are still in the early planning stage of a day care center to make use of dormant recreation rooms, possibly in Brown Hall. (If you are into this, call Hope at 663-9510.) Help our sisters in the community who need places for their kids to stay while they are at work or at classes.

We also decided to call ourselves "the new nation sisters" because this is what we represent. We are an important part of the struggle to build a new nation, a nation based on love and respect for all things. We are an important force of the youth culture, the festival of life that will destroy the decaying Amerikan culture. We are all brothers and sisters and must learn to support each others' struggle for liberation and fight against our enemy together.

We are the New Nation Sisters. Beware, Sponberg and Regents who have imprisoned us in your dormitories --we may be stronger than you someday soon.

On a recent trip to McKenny Union, I was surprised to find that the management at the candy counter still chose to stock their shelves with butternut candy bars. This comes as a shock to me being as an article appeared recently in most newspapers stating that this particular candy bar was to be taken back to the manufacturer because they contained rodent hairs. I chatted with the young lady selling them and we agreed that it's truly nice that our administrators aren't falling for this communist plot and will continue to sell his American students these candy bars along with their added delicacy at no extra cost. I really appreciate attending a university with such an awareness of the people's true needs.

The fall rush parties are beginning and we find ourselves in the midst of THE social events of the semester. I've heard many testimonials of fine rushes, but the best seem to be happening at the Phi Zappa Kappa house. Their sister sorority, Fuka, Fuka, Fuka, is having the highest turnout among the women. They beat all the other sororities so far with their rush party last Friday when two women stopped at their house to sell girl scout cookies. It's so exciting waiting to get a bid in the mail. There is nothing to worry about either as far as getting a bid from one of those "mixed-sororities or fraternities" because there aren't any!

Things must not be running very smoothly in the Student Affairs Office. There's just no excuse for them planning the rush season to begin the same time as the Fall Offensive. I really find it difficult to run home and get ready for a sorority tea after attending my guerrilla warfare class. Why, just last week a fiend was on the third floor of Pray-Harrold putting a bomb in the waste basket at the time he should have been at the Union for fraternity-sorority night. He doesn't know when he'll find time to study. I don't know what excuse the SAB is giving for planning the two most important cultural events of the year for the same month. As Bernardine Dohrn says, "Don't be tricked by talk." These are trying times for rushing the group of your choice because J. Edgar Hoover himself admits that "underground radicals" are the hardest group to infiltrate.

FEMALE SCHIZOPHRENIA

By MEREDITH TAX

A young woman is walking down a city street. She is excruciatingly aware of her appearance and of the reaction to it (imagined or real) of every person she meets. She walks through a group of construction workers who are eating lunch in a line along the pavement. Her stomach tightens with terror and revulsion, her face becomes contorted into a grimace of self-control and fake awareness, her walk and carriage become stiff and dehumanized. No matter what they say to her, it will be unbearable. She knows that they will not physically assault her or hurt her. They will only do so metaphorically.

What they will do is impinge on her. They will demand that her thoughts be focussed on them. They will use her body with their eyes. They will evaluate her market price. They will comment on her defects, or compare them to those of other passers-by. They will make her feel ridiculous, or grotesquely sexual, or hideously ugly. Above all they will make her feel like a thing.

You can say what you like about class and race. Those differences are real. But in this everyday scenario any man on earth, no matter what his color or class is, has the power to make any woman who is exposed to him hate herself and her body. Any man has this power as man, the dominant sex, to dehumanize woman, even to herself.

This constitutes a condition one could describe as female schizophrenia. Most women suffer from some form of it at some point in their lives. And most of them think of it as a "personal problem" rather than a social disease.

Every Thursday night at 7:00 women meet in Sill Hall Lecture Hall 2 to discuss their "personal problems." If you've ever had a case of female schizophrenia come and rap with your New Nation Sisters.

What to do about

UNWANTED PREGNANCY

By LENORE

Many sisters are freaked when they suddenly find out that they are pregnant. They are alone and don't know what to do or who to talk to!

First of all, they didn't have to get pregnant in the first place. Many women are not aware of the availability of birth control pills and other birth control methods in their own community. Birth control pills can be easily obtained by any woman who wants them. Women should take advantage of this availability, because it is one of the ways in which they can gain control of their own bodies. In Ypsilanti, pills can be obtained easily and cheaply at Snow Health Center Planned Parenthood pills can be obtained easily and cheaply at:

Snow Health Center, 487-1122
Planned Parenthood, 482-1644

or from your own doctor. Pills are the easiest and most foolproof method available, but there are also other methods that can be investigated and used if you aren't into taking the pill.

Even though women can prevent pregnancy, many women do get pregnant. Usually, they have nowhere to go and end up in some back street alley, being butchered or maimed.

Abortions are still illegal in Michigan! Abortion counseling is available through Michigan Clergy Counseling. The clergy makes use of a clinic in New York, which deals mostly with out-of-state patients. All of these abortions are done in hospitals and the most modern and easiest methods are used. They can usually be done overnight. Abortions are cheap and usually range in price from what you can afford up to $200.

If you think you might be pregnant or are pregnant, go and see a doctor as soon as possible! Have a pelvic examination, a blood test, and find out how many weeks you are pregnant. Take this information to or call Michigan Clergy Counseling as soon as possible: Ypsilanti, 483-7038; Ann Arbor, 764-7442.

The longer you wait the more difficult it becomes for yourself!

Do You Need Help?

People who are doing abortion counseling, who would like to do abortion counseling, or who want an abortion--the Women's Abortion Project in New York City has extensive information on safe, legal, and inexpensive abortions. Don't believe the pig media. Abortions don't have to cost $600 and up-- except when performed by profit-seeking doctors. The Women's Abortion Project has contacts who will do safe, legal abortions for from $100 to $200--less if necessary. Contact: Women's Abortion Project at the Women's Liberation Center in New York City, telephone 212-691-2036 or 212-691-3396.

DANGER

NEVER USE METHODS DESCRIBED BELOW. THESE METHODS INVOLVE EXTREME PAIN AND CAN LEAD TO PERMANENT DISABILITY, INFECTION, OR DEATH:

Oral Means:

Ergot compounds overdose is poison--can cause fatal kidney damage.
Quinine Sulphate--can cause deformities in fetus or death to mother.
(Estrogen--useless)
(Castor Oil--useless)

NOTHING THAT IS SWALLOWED CAN CAUSE ABORTION WITHOUT ALSO CAUSING DEATH OR SEVERE DISABILITY TO THE MOTHER.

Solids inserted into uterus: DANGER, DEADLY

Knitting needles	Catheters
Coat hangers	Gauze (packing)
Slippery Elm Bark	Artists Paintbrushes
Chopsticks	Curtain Rods
Ballpoint Pen	Telephone wire
Pastes

COMMON DANGER OF PERFORATION (bursting) OF WOMB AND BLADDER, DEATH FROM INFECTION OR HEMORRHAGE.

Fluids inserted into uterus:

Soap suds, Alcohol, Potassium Permanganate, Lye, Lysol, Pine Oil
SEVERE BURNING OF TISSUES--HEMORRHAGE, SHOCK, DEATH.

Air pumped into uterus:

COLLAPSE FROM GAS EMBOLI INTO THE BLOOD STREAM. SUDDEN VIOLENT DEATH.

Injections into Uterine Wall:

Ergot, Pitocin--poison
Sodium Pentothal--overdose causes death

Other Means:

Vacuum Cleaner--connected to uterus--not to be confused with vacuum aspiration (CAN ONLY BE DONE IN A HOSPITAL)--is fatal almost immediately--extracts uterus from pelvic cavity.

Physical exertion such as lifting heavy objects, running etc. is useless.

Falling down stairs--severe injury to mother but no abortion.

BUTCHER ABORTIONS ARE DEADLY. ONLY DOCTORS OR OTHER SPECIALLY TRAINED PERSONNEL CAN SAFELY USE ONE OF THE METHODS OF ABORTION. ALL OTHER METHODS CAN CAUSE DEATH BUT RARELY INDUCE ABORTION.

If you have used on yourself or have allowed to be used, any of the above methods of abortion GOT TO THE NEAREST HOSPITAL IMMEDIATELY. THERE IS NO LEGAL DANGER TO YOU.

Two weeks ago the FLQ (Front for the Liberation of Quebec), a French separatist group, captured James Cross, a British diplomat. They then presented six demands, which included the release of 23 separatists who are currently being held as political prisoners in Canadian jails.

A week ago last Saturday, Labor Minister Pierre Laporte was abducted by the separatists to further dramatize the seriousness of their demands.

The answer given them by Prime Minister Trudeau was troops sent to Montreal and Quebec City, suspension of Canadian citizens' civil liberties, and emergency powers granted to the police to search for the revolutionaries. Last week 300 people were arrested for being "connected" to the FLQ. They could be tried and sentenced to up to 5 years in prison.

The FLQ's answer to this fascist repression by Trudeau was to off Pierre Laporte. His body was found Saturday night, October 17, and they still have no clues as to where Cross is being held or who his abductors are. The Canadian government's despicable attempt to smash the FLQ apparently wasn't enough to do the job, as was demonstrated by the group's response. The situation remains tense and the Canadian government appears to be up against the proverbial wall.

All Power to the Brothers and Sisters of the FLQ.

RENNIE DAVIS

Last Tuesday, October 13, Rennie Davis came to the Michigan Union along with Mike Learner, a defendant in the now pending Seattle conspiracy case. Learner ran down some facts about the case and stressed the importance of the case being publicized. He attacked the straight media for ignoring the case, and charged Nixon and Agnew with conspiring with the straight media to exclude news of left-wing struggle. All people are urged to write or phone their local papers demanding coverage of the upcoming Seattle conspiracy trial.

Rennie Davis then took the mike and denounced Nixon's latest peace plan as a fraud, and explained how this proposal was the same thing Nixon had proposed in the past, but with the elections only a month away, he had to try something to give the impression that he wasn't the same old war hawk. (The Second Coming staff has an analysis of Nixon's peace hoax elsewhere in the issue).

It has become obvious that Nixon and the American ruling class doesn't want peace. Secretary of defense, Laird has said that it will be necessary to keep 250,000 support troops, including massive air and naval power in Vietnam indefinitely. Vietnamization simply means that American B-52 bombers and heavy war equipment, along with increased military aid to the Saigon puppet government will replace the American fighting men. Understanding this, Rennie and other members of the anti-war movement have begun work on negotiating a treaty directly with the people of Vietnam. Representatives of the American people will go to Hanoi to talk directly with the Vietnamese people, bypassing the corrupt war-mongering American government. Once drawn up, the treaty will be circulated among labor unions, college campus' and civic groups, in hope of creating real peace with the Vietnamese people.

Another action Rennie and the movement are building for is a massive program of civil disobedience in Washington beginning May 1st, if Nixon fails to commit himself to a definite troop withdrawal date. Unlike other Washington marches, this one will not end until the war has stopped. Rennie made the suggestion that groups begin forming now to purchase old autos that will only make it to Washington and not back. A few thousand junk cars and a million people could bring Washington to a standstill. If the war is not going to be ended by the fools in Washington (who have said that all they will do is to remove the ground combat troops) it will be necessary for the people to take it upon themselves to do it. It is clear that the American imperialist government is in Vietnam only to fight for their own economic interests. They are the aggressors. The Vietnamese people are simply being asked to be left alone and to reunite their country. Keep May 1st and the days and weeks following open. It looks like the American people will have to end this war themselves.

KNOW YOUR ENEMY

By FRANK MICHELS

Lewis E. Profit should be considered an Enemy of the People. He is referred to by many of the staff union's leadership as "Little Caesar." His official title is Vice-President for Business and Finance. He is also the Treasurer to the Board of Regents. Profit has been here for over a decade and he has constantly used his power to run the University his own way. The campus police report directly to Profit, and in the past he has acted unilaterally and without due cause in suspending students and prohibiting their presence on campus. Profit's true nature has been exposed many times through his anti-life actions.

In 1965 the Eastern Echo revealed the fact that Profit was on the Board of Directors of the Ypsilanti Savings Bank. Sponberg and a regent were also on the Board of the National Bank of Ypsilanti. The Michigan Attorney General ruled that this represented a "direct conflict of interest," since EMU is a heavy depositor in both banks. All three naturally resigned--only from the bank directorships, worse luck, although Profit was quite bitter at the Attorney General's ruling. He has, however, remained tight with the Savings Bank people just as Sponberg has remained tight with the National Bank people.

PIGS OF THE MONTH

Lance Wright and Wayne Douglas are both employed by Eastern Michigan University. They both work in the Personnel Department, and used to be under the supervision of last issue's pig, Gary Hawks. Hawks admitted this summer that he is a Washtenaw County Deputy Sheriff.

It is likely that both Wright and Douglas are also Deputy Sheriffs. They were both active in surveillance of student activities last year, and are continuing to do their anti-social work this year.

THEY SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS!

LEWIS E. PROFIT

Profit is principally responsible for the students' being ripped off every year for lousy--sometimes sub-human--living conditions in the dorms and unedible food. Profit is responsible for Eastern's high-rise parking farce. The building, only one year old, is already crumbling. Only two of the four floors are in use.

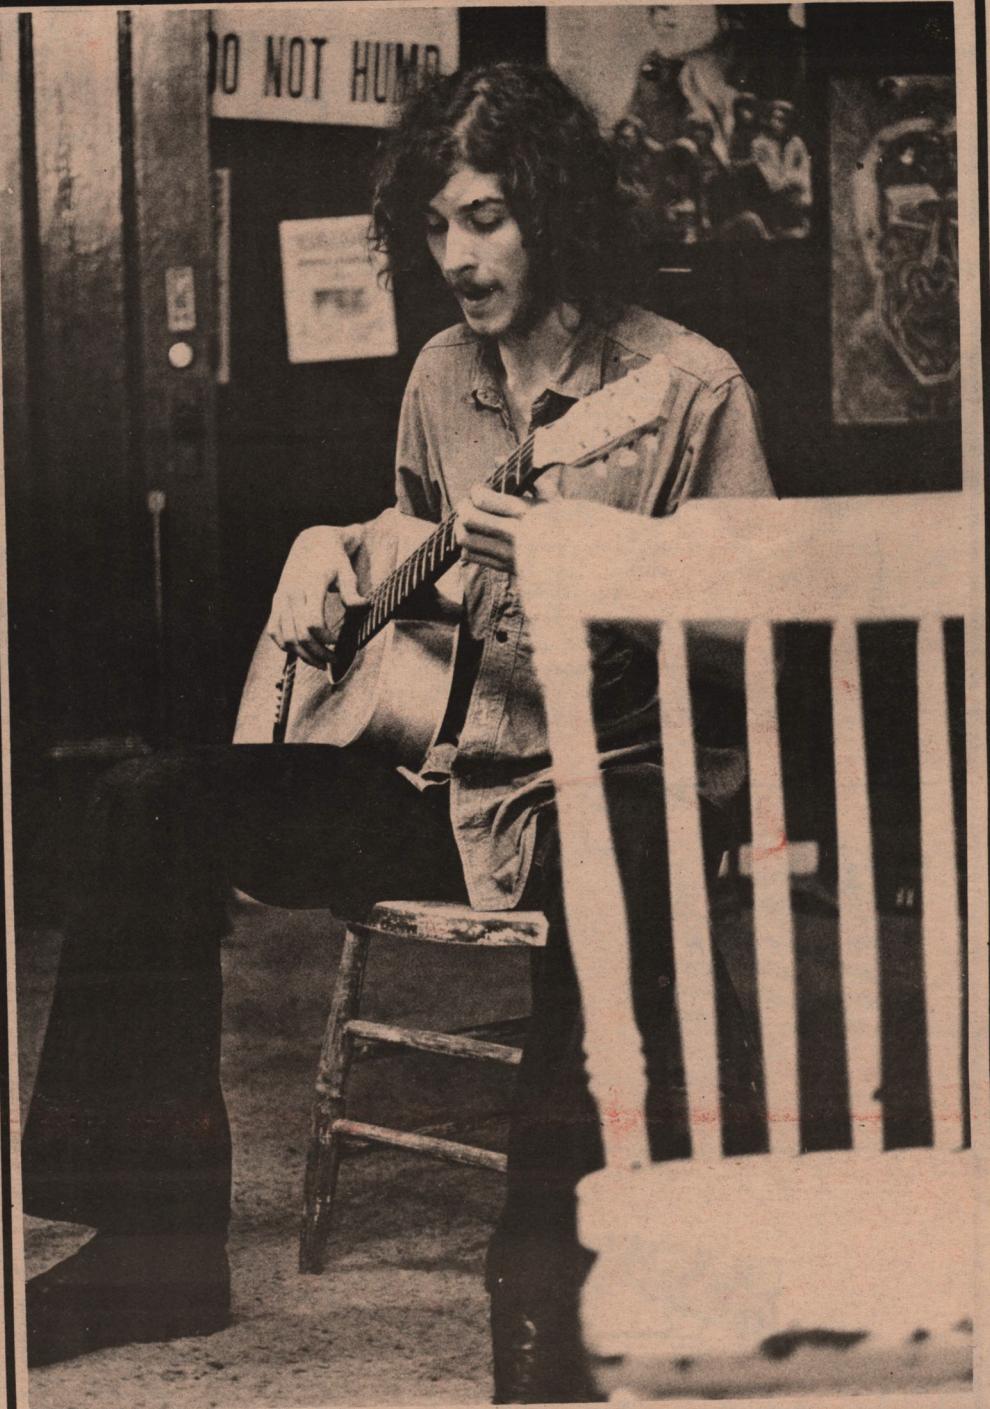

In 1968, Profit was the key man in the suppression of the Obsidian, Eastern's first attempt at an underground paper. He was also a key man in the University's unsuccessful attempt to suppress the Second Coming.

He has continually refused to sign Student Senate requisitions. During last May's student strike he refused to allow the Student Senate to requisition any paper or ink. (He is constantly justifying his fascist actions and techniques in terms of money and efficiency.) Also, during the May disorders, he played a major role in bringing the forces of law'n'order on campus to deal with "those who seek to destroy the University."

Profit associates with people who advocate the use of violence, including murder, in order to gain socially desirable goals.

HE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED EXTREMELY DANGEROUS!

MAGIC HAPPENS

Christain Lee

(Editor's Note: This is a statement made by Dave Heller, a far-out brother who build the Head Sound recording studio himself and is now Christian Lee's producer. The record has just been released and is being played on WNRZ and WKNR. We should support our community radio station, WNYZ, Liberation Radio, and our community musicians. Sounded out!)

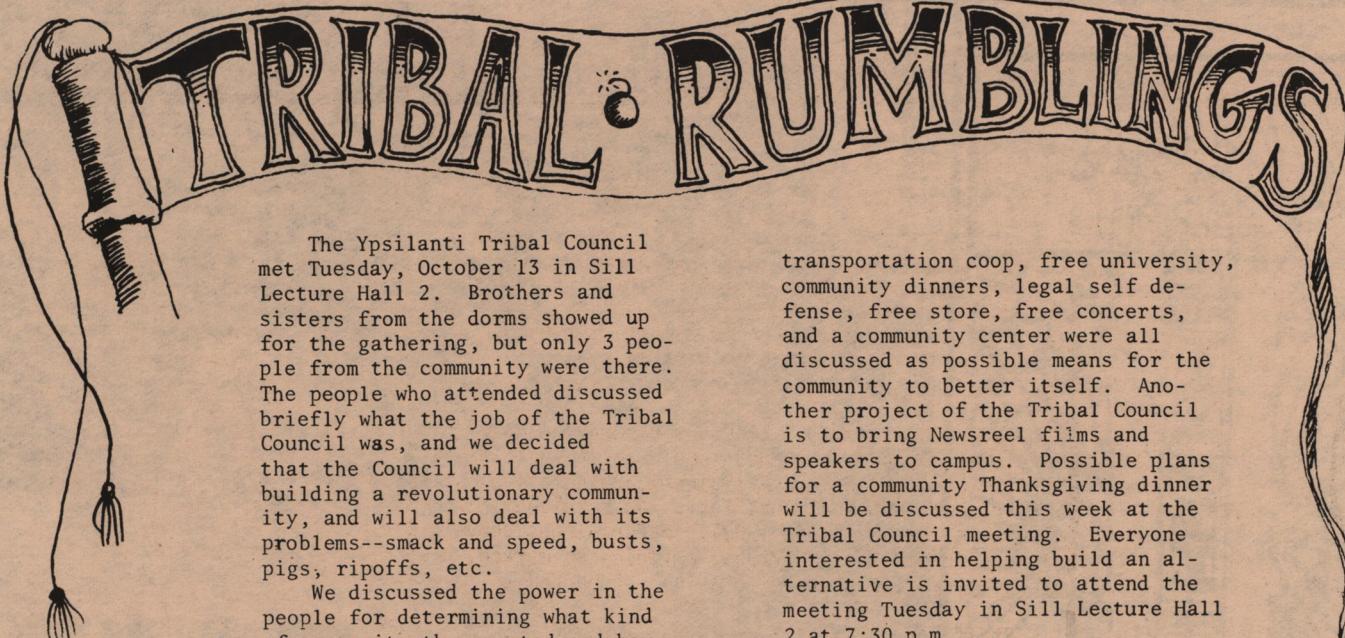

It started back in January of this year, during a search to see if there was still a folk music scene in Michigan. We had a female promoter, B.Z., trying to start a booking agency--this failed. Well, anyway, she ran every musician she could find through the studio. On a Sunday afternoon late in January I was told that I was to cut a session for some people from Detroit, a dude named Christian Lee and some blues musicians that had been playing at Alvin's Delicatessen. Well, they all came up and played their music. Everyone kind of flipped out. It was nothing like they had done before. The songs were the same but the sound was new. None of their sessions to date has been anything like the last.

Some time about the middle of June this cat walks in looking like Jesus in a gas station shirt. It was Christian, and with a thing he called the "Magic-Wand," a song and a feeling.

As it came down we started cutting regular sessions and came up with a single. "Magic Wand" is a song that gets into the age-old dream of the panacea trip of magic and carries the vibes to make magic happen. The end of the song comes at you with about 50 voices, Christian's friends, relatives and neighbors.

The B side of the disc is called "Why Can't We All Be Free!" It is the only song I know of that was written and played and recorded in one take, and released as a record. But it had to be--it is an amazing experience of spontaneous blues.

Trick or Trash Motherfuckers!

All over the country covens of witches, warlocks and yippies are preparing for Halloween celebrations on the eve of October 31.

THIS IS A COORDINATED PART OF THE FALL OFFENSIVE CALLED FOR BY THE WEATHERFOLK IN THEIR COMMUNIQUE. On Halloween night in every Amerikan city, doorbells will ring and a masked YIPPIE will confront Middle Amerika. DO IT!

WE WILL ABOLISH THEIR DEATH CULTURE WITH OUR CELEBRATIONS OF LIFE!! SEE YOU AT MIDNIGHT ON HALLOWEEN!! TRICK OR TRASH!!

Dear Brother or Sister,

I am writing to you as a last resort so i hope you can dig the situation.

I am a student(?)at E.M.U.-which is somewhat of a natural phenomenon at a university. But I am unable to function as a real person,with my own unique life style. I find that I,(along with many others) must conform,albeit promote,the straight,(balling chicks,etc.) syndrome or face certain ostracism,if not outright violence.

Homosexuality is accepted in New York, California, and even in Detroit-but not at E.M.U. So, I come to the problem: It is much easier to liberate people when you know who they are and where their heads are at.

Unfortunately, the homosexuals at E.M.U. (and with 2,000 people there must be a few) are forced to remain in their closets;I want to try and change that with your help

Another Free Store?

If you were around here this summer then you might remember the Free Store that was in the basement of the YIP house(the Old one) When we moved out we just could not take the store with us-we had no room.

WE CAN have one again if the people in the community wouldtry to get it together.If people would begin looking for a store front or any building that is available,that is a start. We will help you as much as we can with everything else.

FREE YOU

Last week was the first week of classes at the Free You, and they turned out very well--for a beginning. It is just the beginning, because the Free Youniversity will grow!

New classes are added this week:

Creativity - Jan Dorking
Wednesday night 8:00 Pray-Harrold 418

Art is life, and life is art with different modes of expression. We are all artists, each in a different way. However, there is little opportunity to be with other artists. So, rather than have a class in an ordinary sense, the emphasis will be placed on providing an atmosphere of creativity, above all other things.

Witchcraft - Tom Manzi
Monday night 8:00 P-H 416

We will study all aspects, including the history of the occult.

Self-Defense - Instructor from Michigan Self-Defense Academy
Wednesday night 7:30 P-H 414

To teach all methods of self-defense from deviants of society like thieves and purse-snatchers. Karate and other techniques.

Some changes in the schedule are:

History of Rock and Roll - Lance Long

This will be switched to Lance's free university class in Ann Arbor for this week alone. Call him at 668-8791.

The Underbelly of American History & How to Tear Up EMU Legally - Dave Cahill

This will be changed to a general rap session on where America is going and tactics of struggle especially relating to the legal system. In other words, I'm consolidating these courses. We'll start at 7:30 in P-H 415 and go until we get tired of it.

Other classes are scheduled as usual:

Urban Guerrilla Theater - Nanci Paster and La'Ron Williams
Tuesday night 7:30 P-H 415

Women's Liberation Workshop - Sisters of the Cross Street Collective
Thursday night 7:00 Sill Lecture Hall 2

Hitchhiker's Demographic Guide to the United States of North America - Bob Johnson
Monday night 7:45 P-H 418

Poetry and Empire - Tom Heisler
Tuesday night 7:30 P-H 416

Silkscreening - Kenny Brown
Thursday night 7:30 P-H 415

Since we are still dealing with the University and it's all bullshit red tape, we are having difficulty getting the rooms we had previously reserved. So if your classroom is full of some weird straight types, just look around. Somewhere on the fourth floor of Pray-Harrold will be your group.

Please get into the Free Youniversity of Ypsilanti --it's your school!

In the spring of 1969, a meeting was held in Ypsilanti by what was then called the Michigan Regional SDS, which was later to become an important part of the leadership core of the Weathermen. The main issue at this meeting, and also other movement meetings being held elsewhere, centered around the fact that the movement was now realizing that it had become necessary to take a new direction in its struggle against the Amerikan Empire. Large-scale campus organizing had, up to then, done little or nothing to stop the Vietnam War, to combat racism, or to stop Amerikan imperialism. On the contrary, the government encouraged "peaceful protest" and even gave its consent to the "march on Washington" type of protest. The government realized that this type of protest gave the people a false sense of accomplishment, a feeling that they had made their opposition to the government's policies known, and that the "leaders" in Washington would respond and make the changes the people had demanded. They responded, but not in the way the protesters had hoped. Agnew made a deal with the New York construction unions to beat the shit out of the peace marchers, the Vietnam War has now been expanded into the "War in Indochina," black revolutionary groups such as the Black Panther Party are being systematically killed or jailed, racism and the oppression of Black people gets worse, and the imperialist Amerikan economic system continues, at an even greater rate, to steal the resources of the underdeveloped countries of the world, paying the workers of those countries starvation wages and supporting corrupt puppet governments and military regimes who suppress the people who rise up angry.

It soon became clear that the American ruer

It soon became clear that the American rulers had no intention of changing their present policies. We have developed an economy which is based on imperialism. We must maintain or expand our present economic domination of the poor countries of the world in order to survive. As a result, we in America today, while comprising only 6% of the world's population, consume over 50% of the world's resources. Most Americans, however, never see this wealth. Workers are finding it more and more difficult to make ends meet. This is because the people in control, the corporate elite and their representatives in Washington, care almost as little for the American worker as they do for the people in the underdeveloped countries they exploit. We are witnessing this occurrence today, as workers' wages are kept down, while corporations such as General Motors continue to make billions in profits every year, most of this going to the wealthy thieves running our "monopoly capitalist" system.

In view of this, it is not surprising that this same corporate elite, while controlling labor unions, the federal government, the military, and all other major institutions in America, also has a very powerful hold over the American university system. It is no coincidence that most university degrees are quite narrow in scope, preparing the student to fill his slot in the corporate hierarchy. Our society can put a person with a degree in business to work tomorrow, but someone with a liberal arts degree will find it considerably more difficult.

in order to keep control of its interests abroad. The elite realizes that if the people of Vietnam can defeat them, other exploited countries will gain inspiration from the Vietnamese and follow their example. America has had to implement the most destructive forces on earth short of nuclear war, but they have failed. The Vietnamese are winning, and America is in trouble.

An example of how the corporate elite took control of a country successfully occurred in Indonesia. Here it was not necessary to use US military forces, because the strategy of the Harvard research center worked.

Essentially what happened is that the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations put large sums of money into the very weak Indonesian university system. This gave them the power to dictate what was taught and to train an elite group of pro-American people who would eventually be put into power. They were well-trained in capitalist economics and were shown how much they had to gain if Indonesia were to be opened up to American exploitation. It took a decade, but inevitably these people assumed positions of power, formed alliances with the wealthy an formed alliances with the wealthy and the military, and in 1967 took power in what is considered one of the bloodiest massacres of the century. The battle was between the wealthy elite supported by the military, and the majority of the people, mostly situated in the rural areas. When the fighting was over, 500,000 people were dead, the Harvard-trained elite was in power, and Indonesia was opened up to American exploitation. Its minerals and oil is being mined by the peasantry for a wage of about ten cents a day, while the new Harvard-trained ruling class gets rich.

Once the massacres like those which happened, and are still happening, in Vietnam, Indonesia, and other countries, are understood, it becomes much clearer why some people are no longer satisfied with "peace marches" or voting for "liberal" politicians. These tactics have failed in the past and will fail in the future. The American economic system cannot change its policies of imperialism or it will collapse.

But we must now ask ourselves the question: Is a system which keeps a major part of the people of the world in poverty, a system which has killed millions of Asians and South Americans in order to simply mine their resources, worth siding with? America is the richest country in the world only because we steal everybody else's share. But this wealth is not even distributed evenly in America. Most people here have to work 40 or more hours a week until they die for less than $4 an hour, while the corporate elite lives like kings. The Weathermen and other so-called "violent" factions have answered that question with their bombs. They have made the difficult decision to side with the Vietnamese and the oppressed peoples of the world. The American ruling class is the true enemy of the world, not our Vietnamese brothers fighting for their own self-determination. That is why the Harvard Institute for International Studies was blown up. That is why more and more military and corporate targets are being attacked. The true enemy of the people of the world has been exposed.

YPSI BOMBER STRIKES

The Mad Bomber of Ypsilanti struck home October 8. One year after the Weathermen "brought the war home" to Chicago.

The bomb was discovered by a janitor in the Pray-Harrold building at Eastern Michigan University. The pigs took the bomb behind Snow Health Center into an open field. When state police arrived they notified the mindless campus pigs that the bomb was actually 3 railroad flares assembled with an alarm clock and wiring--completely harmless.

The Polliwog Tea Club claimed credit for the prank, and warned on its note that "this should wake up the class."

Right on!

WASHINGTON, DC, October 7.
"Law officers have become a special target of the terrorists in our society," said the number 2 pig in California at a hearing. Two pigs are being offed a month, which is twice the number of ten years ago. All power to the good shooters.

MORRISTOWN, Tenn., October 9.
Some time after 100 students occupied the administration building of the college here, three students were wounded by gunfire from a car that drove through the campus. Pigs denied the incident had any connection with the sit-in, while students knew that off-duty law officers did the trick.

KANSAS CITY, October 16. Shortly after pigs moved into a black neighborhood to monitor activities and "be there when they don't need us" there was an explosion. People in the neighborhood took the credit; two white pigs were damaged.

SAN RAPHAEL, Calif., October 8.
At 7 a.m. this morning a bomb ripped through a courtroom and restroom in the Marin County Courthouse. It had been the scene of a heroic attempt by inmates of San Quentin to free themselves and get justive for the Soledad Brothers. See related stories about Angela Davis, the Weatherman communique, and the Soledad Brothers.

SEATTLE, Wash., October 8. Thursday's second blast did an estimated $150,000 damage to the ROTC setup at the University of Washington. Bombs blew simultaneously, ripping holes in the floors and ceiling of the room and smashing doors and windows throughout one wing of the three-story building. It was Seattle's thirty-second bombing of 1970.

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., October 8. A section of one wall of the National Guard Armory was blown out in the third bombing of the day in the home of the record for bank burnings in one season. The credit for the bombing went to the Perfect Park Home Grown Society.

CHICAGO, October 8. The statue of a law officer was blown up on the second try today. The last time a bomb went off at this statute, the Weathermen were "raging" in Chicago. The beginning of the white offensive.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., October 14. A leaflet passed out here last night read: "This is the scenario for all of Southeast Asia. Set up and underwrite right-wing pro-US governments, slaughter the communists and their sympathizers...westernize the economy for US investment. Thus the Center for International Affairs is as integral as the US Army for controlling and exploiting Southeast Asia. This morning the Proud Eagle Tribe blew out $40,000 worth of the Center for International Affairs.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 2. Prince Lucien Campbell Hall is the name of a tall, blank, honky home of physics, chemistry and pig research. Friday night a $50,000 hold was put in the pig operation.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., October 14. Black students over 100 strong, "up to the fact that the pigs were out on strike, seized the time, rampaging through Battle Creek Central High, smashed windows, trashed rooms, and fought counter-revolutionary asshole students attempting to stop their actions. The action began when over 200 students, mostly black, held a sit-in Tuesday to protest the treatment of blacks in the racist Battle Creek school system. When the pigs were called the brothers and sisters got down to the trashing and some battled police with rocks. Bring it on home, brothers and sisters.

WASHINGTON, DC, October 17. Desertions from the Army and Marines have doubled in the last four years. Those two brances of the pig military machine are responsible for the land combat in Vietnam. You have to be gone and avoid capture for 30 days to earn the title of "deserter." The Pentagon of Death reported that 210,745 brothers refused to salute asshole lifers, skipped out, and earned this desertion label. Right on!

WASHINGTON, DC., October 9. The House Internal Security Committee said that "SDS is dead." All we can say to this is that this bullshit committee only has to read the front page of tomorrow's newspaper. In the not-too-distant future this committee's reports are going to read "Capitalist, racist pig Amerika is dead, all power to the people."

GARY, Indiana, October 16. The Gary school board president wants all 7th grade and up students to be fingerprinted!! It's for their own good, he says. What do you think?

FREETOWN, Sierra Leone, October 15. Brothers and sisters burned the flag at the American embassy today, after an American diplomat was kicked out for his involvement in an abortive plot against the government. The CIA is everywhere!

BROCKPORT, New York, October 14. Prof. William Owens, chairman of the speech department at Brockport State University, pleaded guilty to a bomb threat against the University. He is out on $1000 bond awaiting sentencing.

Even the faculty can't take it any more.

NEW YORK, October 10. An explosion rocked a courthouse in Queens, blowing out the second floor front. Minutes before, a brother saying "This is Weatherman" phoned to clear out the people. The people cleared out, the bomb blew, and the pig court began looking for new quarters. Smash the fascist, racist courts! Right on!

MARQUETTE, Michigan. Two White Panthers pleaded guilty to harboring their brother, Pun Plamondon. Brother Skip Taube and Brother Jack Forest were sentences to up to five years in jail. Jack and Pun face further American "justice" with White Panther Chairman John Sinclair in a frameup "conspiracy to bomb" charge in federal court in January.

YORK, Penn., October 16. The York Free School, a group of hippie degenerate ultra-leftists, lost five members Wednesday when they presented a request for use of the US constitution to the principal of William Penn High School.

When 40 members of the corps of effete snobs showed up at the pig's office the next day three shots were fired and the school was closed. Twenty-three people were arrested, no gun was found, and the pigs were still sticking to their version that one of the hippie snobs had a gun and used it.

KALAMAZOO, October 13. Ira Hart, a black freshman, was shot by campus pigs Thursday. He is in serious condition. The Black Action Movement and Student Government, along with assorted freaks, logically stated that campus pigs were not mature or human enough to be issued guns. There was a brief strike, and the school gave in. Now the guns will be stored and the porkers can't easily get at them.

MOSCOW, October 15. More than 6,000 workers from the Gorky Auto Factory attended a rally here today in support of striking GM auto workers in the USA.

They endorsed a message which said: "The many-thousand-strong personnel of the Gorky Car Factory ardently supports the actions of the American workers and wishes them complete success in their just struggle."

Long live the international solidarity of the working class of the whole world.

LANSING, Michigan, October 14. Five "Molotov cocktail" firebombs were found hidden in the Lansing city hall Tuesday night by city pigs who were alerted by a telephone tip. The building houses pig headquarters and a police board meeting was in session.

DETROIT, October 11. The General Motors Building and other institutions of pig culture were trashed Sunday. Over $10,000 worth of windows were relocated all over the streets which belong to us, the people.

COLORADO SPRINGS, October 14. Court martial charges have been filed against six Air Force Academy students after investigations of "drug abuse" at the school. The six were among 14 third classmen (sophomores) investigated for possession of pot and acid. Free the six!

The following was received at the Youth International Party office at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, October 6, 1970.

Sisters and Brothers,

A year ago we blew away the Haymarket pig statue at the start of a youth riot in Chicago. The head of the Police Sergeants' Association called emotionally for all-out war between the pigs and us. We accepted. Last night we destroyed the pig again. This time it begins a fall offensive of youth resistance that will spread from Santa Barbara to Boston, back to Kent and Kansas. Now we are everywhere and next week families and tribes will attack the enemy around the country. It is our job to blast away the myths of the total superiority of the man.

We did not choose to live in a time of war. We choose only to become guerillas and to urge our people to prepare for war rather than become accomplices in the genocide of our sisters and brothers.

We learned from Amerikan history about policies of exterminating an entire people and their magnificent cultures--the Indians, the blacks, the Vietnamese. We are making plans to resist with all of our creativity.

Students and hippies who now hear peace talk from the white man must remember how talk of peace was used against the Indians and preached to the blacks.

Today many student leaders have cut their hair and called for peace. They say young people shouldn't provoke the government. And they receive in return promises of peaceful change. Promises of peace from a government that bombs Cambodia while talking about an end to war, that killed students at Jackson and Kent while calling for responsibility on campus, that murdered Fred Hampton and hundreds of blacks while calling for racial harmony. Remember that Amerikan pigs have already dropped more bombs on a piece of land about the size of Florida than the entire tonnage dropped during World War II. Don't be tricked by talk. Arm yourselves and shoot to live!

We are building a culture and a society that can resist genocide. It is a culture of total resistance to mind-controlling maniacs, a culture of high-energy sisters getting it on, of hippie acid-smiles and communes and freedom to be the farthest-out people we can be. It's a culture that can take care of its people; Rosemary and Tim are free and high.

J. Edgar himself admitted that "underground radicals" were the hardest group to infiltrate. That's because the culture and ideals we want to live by can only be lived in total resistance to Imperialism.

If Nixon invades Cuba, bombs North Vietnam, intervenes in the Middle East we must all move fast. Figure out strategic weak points of the enemy. Look to the Arabs. With the underground and mass movement responding together, we could shut down every international airport in Amerika within 24 hours. Every long-hair is a YIPPIE! every militant woman a Leila Khaled.

Surround every armed attack with rallies, phone calls, posters and celebrations. We are not just "attacking targets"--we are bringing a pitiful helpless giant to its knees.

We invite Ky and Nixon and Agnew to travel in this country. Come to the high schools and campuses But Guard your planes, guard your colleges, guard your banks, guard your children, GUARD YOUR DOORS.

SOLEDAD BROTHER TALKS ABOUT SISTERS

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (LNS)--"Hey, ther's something really important I want to say." I was interviewing Fleeta Drumgo, one of the three brothers facing the electric chair on charges of killing a prison guard, when he interrupted with this exclamation:

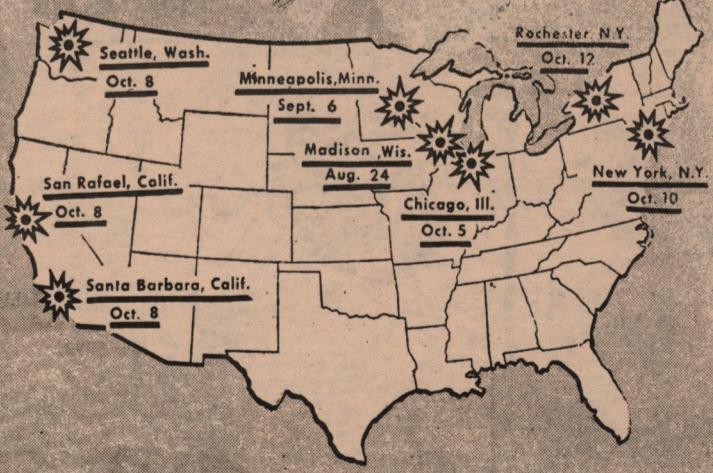

"I want you to tell people that we completely support women's liberation. I saw an article in a women's magazine," he went on, "that said black men are opposed to women's liberation. But that's not true of all black men. The Soledad Brothers know that women are oppressed and exploited, and we support any movement in defense of their freedom and their right not to be exploited."

Picking up an issue of "Women, A Journal of Liberation," he spoke to the photographer: "Take a picture of me with this, so people will know."

MAJOR BOMBINGS IN U.S. SINCE AUG. 24

WHO IS ANGELA DAVIS?

Drawing by David Scott Brown

Angela Davis, revolutionary sister, Black Panther and third woman in history to be on the FBI Ten Most Wanted list, was arrested in New York City October 13. She was charged with murder and kidnapping when three of the weapons used in the San Raphael, California courthouse escape attempt were traced to her.

The guns were brought into the San Raphael courthouse by a 17-year-old black revolutionary, Jonathan Jackson, who had acted as Angela's bodyguard in the past. A police check of the weapons shows they were allegedly bought by her. Jackson's brother George is one of the Soledad Brothers, three black prisoners charged with stabbing to death a Soledad Prison guard a few days after a tower guard shot into a group of inmates, killing three. If the kidnapping attempt had succeeded, the captured judge was to have been used in an exchange for the freedom of the Soledad Brothers.

Angela grew up in Birmingham, Alabama in an intellectual atmosphere, the daughter of school teacher parents. She describes her early years like this: "My political involvement stems from my existence in the South. When I was 12 I helped organize inter-racial study groups in Birmingham, but they were busted up by police. For me a very deep and personal thing was the bombing of the Birmingham church in September 1963 when four young girls were killed. I knew them. Our families were very close."

Being a straight A student in the 10th grade, scholarships sent her to finish high school in New York and then on to Brandeis and the Sorbonne in Paris.

Last year Angela accepted the position of acting assistant professor of philosophy at UCLA. Shortly thereafter the California Board of Regents discovered that she was a communist and fired her, but the courts ruled that she could not be ousted because of her political beliefs.

The Regents then shifted tactics and refused to renew her contract on the grounds that her public speeches contained "inflammatory rhetoric." She told one of her classes that "the first condition of freedom is an open act of resistance--physical resistance, violent resistance." But the faculty voted overwhelmingly to pay her salary out of its own pocket so that she could continue teaching.

The pigs no- have Angela at the mercy of the pig courts of Amerikan injustice. Her bail is set at $250,000. Her traveling brother, David R. Poindexter Jr., was also arrested and bail was set at $100,000. US District Attorney John H. Doyle said the government requested the high bail for Poindexter because nothing was known about his activities and associates.

On Saturday, October 24, there will be state-wide rallies in support of Angela Davis. Details of the rally in Ypsilanti will be posted on signs around campus.

The pigs moved against Angela in such a heavy way because of what she represents--a black woman revolutionary who supports the right of her people to defend themselves against police and government attack. She is a symbol worth emulating for both men and women. Live like her.

The above example of universities serving the corporate interest is widely known, and in most cases Americans can see no harm in this. People tend to overlook the fact that the corporation they work for is building tanks, bombs, napalm, and other tools needed to maintain domination of the rest of the world. When these weapons are put to use to keep countries under US domination, they indirectly pay the salaries of people working for the corporation that produces them. Fewer people, however, are aware of another very important role of a major university. There are a number of "international studies" centers directly financed by the corporate elite by grants from organizations such as the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations, and by the federal government as well. The purpose of these centers is well illustrated by looking at the recently-bombed Harvard Institute for International Studies.

The Bombed Harvard Institute

The Harvard Institute is similar in structure and purpose to a number of other centers located primarily within the American university system. These centers, located at universities like MIT, Berkeley, and Cornell, are funded and controlled by the American corporate elite for the sole purpose of studying and implementing the means for this same corporate elite to gain control of the economic resources of the underdeveloped countries of the world. It is in these centers that coups are engineered to overthrow governments unfriendly towards American imperialism. It is in these centers that the CIA, the corporate elite, and future puppet governments scheme to funnel the resources of the world back to America. It was here that the Diem government in Vietnam was conceived, along with its successors, the Ky and Thieu regimes. These governments represent not the people of their country, but rather the interests of the American corporations. Vietnam today is an example of the extremes the American elite will go to

LEARY IN ALGERIA

By STEW ALBERT

Timothy Leary is in Algiers. I last saw him on a very white and sunny beach. He and Rosemary told me to give you their love and best wishes for a violent revolution.

I was in Algeria to get political advice from Eldridge Cleaver and to make contacts for the Youth International Party. Eldridge and DC were the hosts but it was time to leave and my suitcase was packed.

"Hey, Stew, we can't let you go. Tim Leary is here," Eldridge announced.

My mind was blown. The best dream a revolutionary madman could have had suddenly became true flesh. The psychedelic revolution broken out of jail and now in the third world making common cause with a black gun.

"Hey, man, did you levitate over the fence?" I asked.

Leary was in my arms. He was disguised as a completely ordinary pig business man. But the twinkle in his eyes was a dead giveaway. Fortunately the FBI isn't trained to read twinkles.

"Stew, this is so beautiful. You know, the last time I saw Eldridge was on an airplane; he told me to stay out of jail. I should have listened to him."

"Hey, crime partner, how you doin'?" Eldridge extended his hand and two people who should have gotten together a thousand years ago began exchanging jailhouse memories.

"All that propaganda about my digging jail as righteous Karma was just bullshit," Dr. Tim declared. "We were trying to convince the pigs I was a model prisoner so they wouldn't be afraid to turn their backs. I intended to escape from there the first day.

"The pigs have absolutely no idea how I got out and I don't want to give it away, but I'll tell you this--I had to lift weights every day to pull it off. I realized my freedom was the only thing I wanted and was willing to kill for it. The need for armed revolution becomes obvious when you spend seven months of your existence living among pigs. The Weathermen drove my getaway car, but I completely supported them before I knew they were involved in my escape."

"Hey, Leary, did you spend much time with the Weathermen?" Eldridge inquired.

"Yes, we turned on a lot and Rosemary and I went to see 'Woodstock' with Bernardine Dohrn and Jeff Jones. We were stoned out of our minds."

Dr. Timothy Leary, former Harvard professor and political prisoner, has been given political asylum by the Algerian government. His request for protection in exile was backed completely by the Black Panther Party.

Leary listed himself as a member of the Youth International Party and the Weathermen.

"The same pigs who wanted to ice me are after Leary. They hate him because he made their children rebel. Kids want to make love and not kill niggers. That's a crime in Babylon," Eldridge rapped to an Algerian friend.

Rosemary Leary, working for Tim on the outside, has gone through changes. "Bernardine taught me a lot about women's liberation," Rosemary exuded. "I want to go back to Amerika; I want to take revenge and blow things up."

What is Tim Leary going to do in a revolutionary African country? "I am going to write a book about my prison life and conversion. I'll do a regular column for the underground press and I want to go to Hanoi. Naturally I will accept totally the discipline of the Black Panther Party."

"We used to quote from I Ching a lot," Rosemary stated, "but now it's going to be Kim Il Sung and the thought of Chairman Mao."

Rosemary and Tim will be renting a house in the Algerian countryside. They would like the international brotherhood to visit them, but room is limited, so write first.

Our revolution has taken an inevitable turn.

In Algeria the gun protects the flower.

In Algeria the flower becomes the gun.

Inside Dope

THE HIGH SOCIETY

With the coming of the fall fraternity and sorority rush, many of the brothers and sisters have been getting quite a rush themselves. A combination of good dope and the fine season of Autumn make the rush even more intense. A fine Autumn afternoon might be spent tripping on all the good vibes of the season.

Plenty of good dope around, but you should always try it before you buy it. Some domestic weed is being labelled "Super Bomb Far Fuckin' Out Loaded Mind-Blowing Mexican Gold" or "Toke Smoking Far Out Dynamite Panama Red Reefer." Sorry, but most weed around is domestic. Some is really good and other stuff isn't. So always try a toke before buying.

A Note on Downers

Downers have killed two of our culture's poets, Janis Joplin and Jimi Hendrix. Their deaths were reflections of the capitalist system and the way it has affected the music industry. Rock musicians working and socializing 24 hours a day find the only way to get to sleep is to hit up some downs. There are many more reasons why people plunge into barbiturate poisoning due to nembutals, seconals, and downs. Downs kill! So why are people fucking up their lives? How did all this shit start?

In August of 1969 Nixon and his mad dogs, the Mafia, staged Operation Intercept, to keep marijuana from coming into the communities which get high all through this country. When this occurred, some brothers and sisters turned to downs because of lack of dope to smoke. The pigs, knowing that there is a revolutionary stir in the air, know downs and smack are the perfect drugs to destroy the people's energy.

So, brothers and sisters, take it from there. Some people are now too fucked up on downs to worry about themselves, let alone anyone else! The down high is bullshit, is is one sitting around and waiting for the brothers and sisters to make the revolution. This ain't even a high, it's a down. A down on your people and a down on yourself. Get high, and get high on the people, and the revolution. REVOLUTION IS THE SOLUTION; INSURRECTION IS THE CORRECTION.

GET STONED!

Dope Review

Current market prices in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Acid:

White double domes, still the best acid around at only $1.50 a hit.

Green tabs, really good acid, it's definitely a good trip.

Lots of different acid from the West Coast; among the kinds are purple double domes, which are excellent.

Mescaline:

White snorting mescaline. Really, really good, a lot better than any other mescaline around.

Brown mescaline. Most people get off well, but others claim they get off too well.

Pot:

Lots of good reefer selling for 10-15 dollars a lid. Always try before purchasing.

Hash:

Plenty of good hash, including some good Afghanistan hash gold seal slabs at $75 an ounce, $5 a gram.

Red Lebanese hash, good tokes at $80 an ounce and $6 a gram.

Ozone Special of the Week:

Some good old Mexican gold. One joint will ease your pain for 8 hours. At last, a taste treat worth looking into. Selling at $12-$15 a lid.

Coming Soon:

Reports have it that MDA is coming into town. More in next issue's column.
